NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

ARBAB RUSTAM GUIV DEATH ANNIVERSARY

We shall not forget!

October 7, 2008 was the 28th Death Anniversary of our benefactor, Late Arbab Rustam Guiv. He was our savior when back in 1973, our small Zoroastrian Community of about a hundred, was struggling to find a place of it's own to conduct religious classes and celebrate annual events. The late Dr. Rustom Sarfeh of California, who had attended our Navroz function at the UN School in 1975, on his visit to Iran mentioned of our plight to Arbab Rustam Guiv and his wife, Khanum Morvarid. Without any hesitation, Mr. & Mrs. Guiv were ready to commit more than $100,000 to help find us our first home - a Darbe-Mehr in New Rochelle. We shall never forget their generosity or their vision! Who knew then, that a small community of about 100 Zoroastrians would grow to more than 500 in 35 years and get to enjoy their gracious gift!

We pray to Ahura-Mazda at this time to bless their souls and shower their blessings on us!
"The real measure of a man's wealth is what he has invested in Eternity."

Religious Classes

- ◆ Certificates will be awarded at the December 7, 2008 Religious Class to all our graduating students who moved up a class in September. We would like all kids to attend.
- ◆ Join us every first Sunday of the month at the Darbe Mehr, 1:30 PM to 2:30 PM and listen to Prof. Irani's interesting views on Zoroastrian Beliefs and Way of Life.

FUND RAISER

Thanks to our long time members; Erach Munshi, Lovji Cama & Mehru Cama, ZAGNY once again sponsored the 24th Annual Udvada Atashbehram Fund Raiser at the Darbe Mehr in Pomona on October 19, 2008.

It was well attended by about 100 attendees and started off with a jashan, followed by Erach's report on the disbursement of funds for the maintenance of the Mumbai, Udvada, Surat and Navsari Atashbehrams and Agiaries; and also funds providing monetary support to the mobeds and needy Zoroastrians in the area. It was then followed by a delicious lunch catered by Najma Akhtar.

Thanks to all who contributed, a sum of about $ 8,000 was collected on that day. From October 2007 to June 2008, $30,200 was collected and distributed in India. This year a goal of collecting $40,000 by June 2009 has been set and we sincerely hope that it will be achieved with your generous contributions.

If you wish to contribute to this worthwhile cause, please make your check payable to ZAGNY CRITICAL ASSISTANCE FUND and mail it to Erach Munshi. For further info: Call 212-865-6683

HALLOWEEN PARADE

Our little youngsters, along with their moms and dads, were all too excited to take part in ZAGNY's Annual Halloween Costume Parade held on November 2, 2008. The kids ranged from 2 years to 14 years old. After the Religious Classes they all marched down the Main Hall in their various get-ups to the enjoyment of all present, where to their delight treats of candies awaited them - Thanks to Parynaz & Khushroo Vimadalal.

NEWS FROM MUMBAI

Seven candidates emerge victorious in Bombay Parsi Panchayat polls

Source: Parsi Khabar By arzan sam wadia □
October 24, 2008

Mumbai, October 23: New trustees vow to work in harmony and revamp BPP

After three weeks of polling, the votes for the first ever Bombay Parsi Panchayat (BPP) elections were counted on Wednesday evening, putting seven new trustees at the helm of affairs for the next seven years. The onus will now lie on the new leadership to revamp the BPP.

The seven candidates who emerged victorious, among the 32 candidates, were Arnavaz Mistry, Dinshaw Mehta, Jimmy Mistry, Khojeste Mistry, Yazdi Desai, Rustom Tirandaz and Noshir Dadrawala. While the candidates represented different groups or stood for the elections independently, they unanimously agreed to work together to bring about changes in the BPP.

"There is a need to create harmony among ourselves. We have had a good beginning at the first meeting, and we will have to work together in the future," says Noshir Dadrawala, who believes that the new blood would help in creating an energetic leadership, full of new ideas and enthusiasm.

"Now that the dust has settled, we're looking forward to put all the controversies around the elections behind us," he added.

Trustee, Jimmy Mistry, feels that the new committee will not face much problem in taking over new role because all the members have been familiar with community service. "We are not new to this and we all have done a fair amount of community service in the past. We need to get started to make the changes in the first year and present a united face to the community," said Mistry, who believes that the present leadership must encourage a more corporate-style management at the BPP.

"Though the elections were fairly bitter during the time of canvassing, but we must work together now because we're accountable to the entire community. We have to live up to our manifestos," said trustee Khojeste Mistry. "We have decided to work in harmony and overcome difficulties as mature adults. It's going to be a tough job ahead for the next seven years, but I am optimistic about it," he added.

The seven trustees will have their first board meeting on Monday.
